

Part of RGE's commitment to the environment ...
 printed with soy ink on paper from well-managed forests and controlled sources.

Your participation in RGE's wind energy program allows you to support the development and growth of wind-generated electricity, reducing the need for energy produced from other sources. By purchasing wind energy you can help the environment and make our communities even better places to live and work.

How wind-generated electricity works

Re-Think Energy

Choose
WIND POWER

