

David José Mesonero Molina

(Salamanca, 1980)

Proprietary Director on the Board of Directors of Iberdrola Renovables Internacional, S.A.U.

He holds a Bachelor's degree in Business Administration from ICADE and an MBA from IESE.

RELEVANT EXPERIENCE FOR PERFORMING HIS DUTIES AT IBERDROLA RENOVABLES INTERNACIONAL, S.A.U.:

He is the Deputy Director of Corporate Development Division in Iberdrola, S.A.

Prior to his role in Iberdrola, David was CFO at Siemens Gamesa Renewable Energy since December 1, 2018, and a member of its Management Committee since the creation of SGRE, having achieved investment grade status (BBB) from the main rating agencies and having refinanced all its debt, always under sustainability criteria (ESG). Also, he was board member to Windar, Adwen (former JV between Gamesa and Areva focused on Offshore) and of Gamesas's regional boards in India, Mexico and Brazil.

Prior to his appointment as CFO, David was the Managing Director of Corporate Development and Strategy, leading the merger process between Gamesa and Siemens Wind Power. Following that, he was appointed Chief Integration Officer, overachieving synergy targets, and member of L3AD 2020 program Steering Committee.

In addition, he was named one of the 40 most influential leaders in energy under the age of 40 (the Recharge4040 prize). Wind Power Monthly magazine also selected him as one of the 15 most influential people in the wind industry.

He has a background as a strategic consultant and investment banker and specializes in capital markets and in designing different financing structures.

