

RG&E electricity and natural gas rates

RG&E has filed tariff revisions October 27, 2023 with the New York State Public Service Commission (PSC) for new electricity and natural gas delivery rates to become effective May 1, 2025. These tariff revisions cover the third annual delivery rate increase under the terms of a three-year rate plan approved by the PSC in October 2023, and they include a $65.3 million increase in electricity revenue and a $22.4 million increase in natural gas revenue. These tariff revisions also recover revenue shortfalls for the electric service classes for the period May 1, 2023 to November 1, 2023.

A residential electricity customer with an average use of 600 kilowatt-hours/month can expect an average monthly bill increase of $6.90. A residential natural gas heating customer using 100 therms/month can expect an average monthly bill increase of $5.41.

You may see some charges prorated on your May or June bill to take into account energy delivered before and after the new electricity and natural gas delivery rates went into effect.

Regarding energy supply: If you purchase energy supply from RG&E, your price will continue to be based on market prices; if you purchase your energy supply from a supplier other than RG&E (also known as an energy services company or ESCO), your energy supply price depends on your agreement with your ESCO.

RESIDENTIAL CUSTOMERS

Regular residential customers: The electricity energy charge for delivery increased by 1.149 cents per kilowatt-hour. Increases to the natural gas block rates are: 4 to 100 therms: 5.414 cents per therm; 101 to 500 therms: 5.103 cents per therm; 501 to 1,000 therms: 4.455 cents per therm; 1,001 to 30,000 therms: 1.354 cents per therm. The customer charges for electricity and natural gas will not change.

Residential Time-of-Use customers: The electricity energy charge for delivery for Service Classification 4 (Schedule I) increased by 0.969 cents per kilowatt-hour and Service Classification 4 (Schedule II) increased by 1.101 cents per kilowatt-hour. The Service Class 4 (Schedule I) and the Service Class 4 (Schedule II) customer charges will not change.
