- 4. Supply prices. Manage the price you pay for the supply portion of your energy bill by shopping for your energy supplier. You have a choice of energy suppliers and may select a supplier and price that works for you. Visit the Choose a Supplier section at rge.com.

How is my electricity generated?

Your electricity supplier is required by the New York State Public Service Commission (PSC) to provide you with periodic environmental disclosure information on fuel sources and air emissions for the electricity supply purchased on your behalf.

The most recent data – in this case for calendar year 2019 – is provided by the PSC and the New York State Energy Research and Development Authority (NYSERDA).

- If you receive your electricity supply from us, your environmental disclosure information is provided in the chart located at the right and on our website at rge.com.
- If you receive your electricity supply from a supplier other than us and your supplier's charges are included in your RG&E bill, your supplier's environmental disclosure is published periodically as a separate bill insert with your RG&E bill.
- If you buy electricity from a supplier other than RG&E, and are billed directly by your supplier, you should receive environmental disclosure information from your supplier.

For more information on environmental disclosure, please contact the PSC at 888.Ask.PSC1 \(888.275.7721\) or NYSEDA at 866.NYSERDA \(866.697.3732\).

Power On: Meeting the growing needs for electricity

A recent project to meet growing energy needs in Wayne County involved 19 miles of rebuilding and upgrading poles and equipment as well as installing optical ground wire.

The County is the third-highest apple-producing county in the country with more than 20,000 acres of apple farms. When apple orchard owners heard about our project, they reached out to learn more and discuss the impact our work would have on their orchards and crops.

This work highlights our commitment to "Design with the Community in Mind" while focusing on the benefits that our system investments will bring to the entire Wayne County community.

It's just another example of how we go above and beyond to put our customers first.
